A weekly social group gathering held in a relaxed and easy-going environment where young autistic adults can be social, find common ground and make friends as well as other meaningful, long-term connections - all the while continuing to develop communication and social skills.

Our young autistic people can enjoy movie nights, excursions, themed celebration events, outdoor activities, video games, arts and crafts and so much more!

All lead by skilled facilitators while members have input on their program and activities throughout the year.

Held at the
Gold Foundation
9-11 Carlisle St
Camden Park
